

2nd Stakeholder Dialogue Workshop: Traceability of nanomaterials

Notification requirements, nanodatabases and labelling

Proceedings: February 21st, 11:00 – ca. 17:30, registration from 10:30

Time	Topic
11:00	Welcome by BMU
11:10	Introduction of the participants
11:35	Introduction to the topic and aims of the Dialogue Workshop
Tour de Table of the German stakeholders and authorities on notification, nano databases and labelling requirements
11:45	German chemical industry association (VCI) Consumer protection organisation (Verbraucherzentrale NRW) Trade unions (IGBCE) Enforcement authorities (Environmental Ministry of Brandenburg) Environmental Protection Agency (UBA) Federal Institute for Risk Assessment (BfR) Federal Occupational Health and Safety Agency (BAuA) – results of company survey
12:15	Questions from guests and discussion
12:45	Lunch
Introduction of approaches in other countries and in the EU
14:00	Planned Legislation in France and Belgium Clarisse Durand
14:45	Planned activities in Denmark Dr. Flemming Ingerslev
15:30	Introduction to the Nordic Product Registers Poul Erik Andersen
16:00	Coffee
16:30	Activities of the EU Commission Dr. Otto Linher
17:15	Final discussion round of the first day
Ca. 17:30	End of day 1

It is possible to participate in a common dinner after the workshop. Unfortunately, the costs for lunch and dinner cannot be covered by the organiser.

Proceedings: February 22nd, 9:30 – ca. 15:30

Time	Topic
9:30	Summary of the previous day
10:00	Discussion of potential regulatory levels – national or EU-wide
10:45	Presentation on existing systems of product labelling Dr. Axel Hahn
11:15	Discussion on further, core aspects of a possible regulation, amongst others <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Relationship between labelling and nanodatabases• Scope of a nanodatabase• Level of detail of information• Access to a nanodatabase
13:00	Lunch
14:00	Conclusions and recommendations
ca. 15:15	Leave-taking and end of the event